Hello,

I had a good conversation with [REDACTED] 20 minutes ago. We discussed some of the challenges facing the homeless, shopping center and the community. We agreed to continue communicating to work together in effectively addressing the situation.

Respectfully,

Good afternoon,

Constituent [REDACTED] called to complain about the homeless situation in front of and behind the 99 Cent Store at University/Avalon. She states she and the owner/employees of the 99 Cent Store have called law enforcement on numerous occasions to rid the area of aggressive homeless persons. She states that they are forced to leave, but in an hour they return so she feels the situation never really gets resolved. She said there are signs up (I think about loitering?) but they do not deter the homeless people from hanging out in the area. She noticed earlier today that there were 5 of them – 1 was laying on the ground and the other 4 were congregated around a tipped over shopping cart. She feels this makes the City look bad and also forces shoppers to leave Carson to go to neighboring cities like Gardena where they can shop in peace and without fear.

She would appreciate a call back at [REDACTED]

Sincerely,

Ginger Buesing
